

It is unwise to rush the decision to change broadcast ownership rules. We the public wish to have more input before any decision is made. Please postpone the decision making until the issue has been aired publicly. What's the rush? This is an issue that affects every American's access to a diversity of points of view regarding the information that is transmitted through the media.